

Shipleigh College – Empowering Leaders

1. Level Two Award in Team Leading Skills

Description: Appropriate for those already in a team leader/supervisory role or wishing to make the transition from working in a team to leading a team. This nationally recognised qualification will help team leaders/supervisors to become more effective and boost confidence

Accredited. City & Guilds.

10 participants required to run a course.

Course delivery method: Group learning

Delivery location: Employer and training provider premises

Course length: Three days over one week

2. ILM Level Three Award in Leadership and Management

Description: Ideal for aspiring professionals looking for the next step into line management or those with experience of managing a team or project to deliver clearly defined outcomes.

Accredited. ILM.

10 participants required to run a course.

Course delivery method: Group learning

Delivery location: Employer and training provider premises

Course length: Four days over one week

3. ILM Level Five Award in Leadership and Management

Description: Suitable for Operational or Departmental Managers with practical experience who also wish to develop knowledge of current management theory. Suitable for managers from all sectors and sizes of organisation. Topics may include how to lead and manage others effectively, understanding organisational culture and ethics and improving own leadership performance and capability.

Accredited. ILM.

10 participants required to run a course.

Course delivery method: Group learning

Delivery location: Employer and training provider premises

Course length: Four days over one week